

Tällberg-SNF-Eliasson Global Leadership Prize Winners 2021 Social Media Kit

Copy for different social media channels

Facebook/LinkedIn:

We are immensely proud to reveal the winners of the 2021 Tällberg-SNF-Eliasson Global Leadership Prize!

The 2021 Laureates:

Asha de Vos for her pioneering research and the creation of a world class marine conservation research and education institution in Sri Lanka, in the face of long-standing bias to reserve such platforms for the Global North.

Tero Mustonen, Finnish climate scientist, naturalist and community leader, for his efforts to blend science and the wisdom of local and Indigenous peoples to define new, robust and sustainable approaches to climate change.

In addition, the Foundation announced two winners in the newly established category of emerging leaders:

Pashtana Durrani, for her efforts to promote childhood digital literacy as a pillar of a new approach to education in the face of the brutal and violent political and social developments in Afghanistan.

Christian Ntuzimira, for his passionate advocacy for palliative care in Rwanda and elsewhere in Africa, based on his deeply held belief that dignified end-of-life care is a human right.

Sign up for a chance to meet our prize winners on December 8th!

<https://tallberg-snf-eliasson-prize.org/>

Instagram:

We are immensely proud to reveal the winners of the 2021 Tällberg-SNF-Eliasson Global Leadership Prize!

The 2021 Laureates:

@ashadevos, for her pioneering research and the creation of a world class marine conservation research and education institution in Sri Lanka, in the face of long-standing bias to reserve such platforms for the Global North.

Tero Mustonen, Finnish climate scientist, naturalist and community leader, for his efforts to blend science and the wisdom of local and Indigenous peoples to define new, robust and sustainable approaches to climate change.

In addition, the Foundation announced two winners in the newly established category of emerging leaders:

@afghania_barakzai, for her efforts to promote childhood digital literacy as a pillar of a new approach to education in the face of the brutal and violent political and social developments in Afghanistan.

Christian Ntizimira, for his passionate advocacy for palliative care in Rwanda and elsewhere in Africa, based on his deeply held belief that dignified end-of-life care is a human right.

Find out more and sign up for a chance to meet our prize winners on December 8th at @tallbergfoundation

#newthinking #globalleadership #TSEGLP2021 #tallbergprize

Twitter:

These are divided into two tweets: the laureates and emerging leaders.

Laureates:

Meet the winners of the 2021 Tällberg-SNF-Eliasson Global Leadership Prize!

@ashadevos, Sri Lankan marine biologist and ocean educator and Tero Mustonen, Finnish climate scientist, naturalist and community leader.

Sign up to meet them on Dec 8th! <https://tallberg-snf-eliasson-prize.org/>

Emerging Leaders

Meet the winners of the Emerging Leader category of the 2021 TSEGL Prize!

@BarakPashtana, for her efforts to promote childhood digital literacy and Christian Ntizimira, for his advocacy for palliative care in Rwanda.

Sign up to meet them on Dec 8th! <https://tallberg-snf-eliasson-prize.org/>

Graphics for announcement and personal highlights

In the folder you will find all relevant images and videos.

Google drive folder

Social media handles and hashtags for winners

Laureates	Twitter	Instagram	Facebook	LinkedIn
Tero Mustonen	-	-	-	-
Asha de Vos	@ashadevos @OceanswellOrg	@ashadevos @OceanswellOrg	@ashadevos @OceanswellOrg	Personal Oceanswell
Emerging Leaders	Twitter	Instagram	Facebook	LinkedIn
Pashtana Durrani	@BarakPashtana @LEARNafg	@afghania_barakzai @learn.afg	Personal LEARN	-
Christian Ntzmira	@ntzimira @acreol_org	-	ACREOL	ACREOL